

IMPACT EXPO 2007—Entrepreneurship Exhibition!

On September 29th, Impact Entrepreneurship Group & 2000 students are hitting the University of Waterloo campus by storm for Impact Expo. In its second year, Impact Expo is a free one day conference and exhibition. As a part of Communitech's Entrepreneurship Week and the University of Waterloo's 50th Anniversary celebrations, Impact Expo is the perfect event for up-and-coming leaders and entrepreneurs to attend.

Highlights include:

- Career Fair with 15 sponsors on campus recruiting for full-time and co-op positions.
- Business Case study competitions presented by Google and Bell.
- Keynote presentations focusing on business and entrepreneurship from CEOs and other entrepreneurs.
- Workshops that give students the opportunity to explore new career paths.

Event Information:

Impact Expo runs from 10:30am - 5:00pm on Saturday September 29th at the Student Life Centre (SLC) and Math & Computing Building (MC) on the University of Waterloo campus.

Impact would like to like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors *
Bell Canada, Deloitte, IBM, Ontario Centre of Excellence, University of Waterloo, Bereskin & Parr, BLG, FEDS, Infusion Development, Miller Thomson LLP, Sun Microsystems, TechCapital Partners, CGA, James Perly Consulting, CYBF and SYBASE.

More details about Impact Expo can be found online, at www.expo.impact.org or by contacting public.relations@impact.org

About Impact

Impact is a student-run, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting entrepreneurship and leadership in Canada. Consisting of over 100 student volunteers nationwide, Impact hosts national and regional conferences, competitions and networking events that bring together 5,000 of the top high school and post-secondary students each year. For more on Impact, please visit www.impact.org

Taken from: SBE Weekly

Wilfred Laurier School of Business and Economics Student Council

<http://www.mrthor.com/SBESC/SBEweekly>